WORKSHOP ON GRATITUDE

16 January

"You have so much to be grateful for!
How many times have you said this to someone or had someone say this to you? Gratitude, fortunately, has become as commonplace as a reminder to tune into positivity, yet, it does somehow still take a back seat to our daily life stresses. That is likely because gratitude flourishes or diminishes based on our desire to train ourselves to be appreciative. Being thankful is not always experienced as a natural state of existence, we must work at it, akin to a type of strength training for the heart. Practicing gratitude can strengthen our immune system, help us feel less lonely, and evenencourage us to find compassion and generosity toward others..."

94.3 MY FM Studio Visit

20 January

Aiming to introduce the children with the functioning of a radio Station, a visit to MY FM was organized for the students of Grade VI to VIII. At the Radio Station everyone was welcomed by RJ Animesh and said the children would learn different profiles at a radio station. Explaining the working of a radio station he explained it is divided into two departments Sales and Programming. The programming department produces content as per the requirement of the sales department.

Providing insight into how RJs prepare for every programmeAnimesh sir said preparation of almost an hour or two is required before RJs go on air..

Pariksha pe Charcha

20 January

The MM School joined with live webcasting of &"Parikshapecharcha 2020" on 20 Jan 2020. All the Faculty and Students of Grade VI to X were assembled in the Activity hall for the active participation. The PM interacted with Students from various parts of India who posed different queries regarding examinations.Hon'ble Prime Minister stated that instead of reaching for "low hanging fruit", the bar should be high enough so as to inspire a person to achieve higher goals.

The occasion was very eximious and the students learnt a number of great things. How to cope up with stress? Was a question asked by a student from Rajasthan. The PM came up with a vibrant answer and the crowd was overwhelmed with joy for the same. The PM enlightened the crowd with his positive and optimistic words and played an important part to motivate the students towards studies.
